

The safer, the better

ABB safety switch with extra large viewing window

Enhanced safety means extra value, for you and your customers. That's because the new ABB safety switch with extra large viewing window is a superior solution. With the largest window on the market,* it helps deliver extra safety to your customers, allowing them to visually verify open contacts or check fuses. And because you stand to gain more value from this product, it means better business for you. So recommend the new ABB safety switch with extra large viewing window to your customers. With a window this big, it's clear that safer means better for everybody. electrification.us.abb.com

*As of March 1, 2021

